NOTES ON JONAH.

NOTES ON THE STRUCTURE OF JONAH.

The clue to the date is given in 1:1: which, by comparison with 2 Kings 14:25, falls within the time of Jeroboam II and the earlier years of Uzziah: therefore about 690 .C. (see Ap. 50, p. 59).

Modern critics are practically unanimous in declaring that the book is a "combination of allegory and myth". But the fact that Jonah the prophet was a historic personage is settled by 2 Kings 14:25. And the fact hat the prophecy, with its great miracle, was referred to by Christ as a type of Himself', places the book in as high a position as any other prophecy.

The Century Bible says that "we are not to conclude that the literal validity of the history of Jonah is established by this reference " (note on Matt. 12. 40. p. 206). But, apart from the fact that the Lord referred to the Queen of Sheba in the very next sentence, and thus places Jonah on the same level of "literal validity", the question is placed beyond all controversy by the further fact that seven times in John's Gospel the Lord declared that every one of His words that He uttered was given Him to speak by the Father (see below). Those who strike at these words of Christ are striking at God Himself, and are making the whole of Divine Revelation of none effect. All the puerile and fanciful assumptions used for arguments are swept away with one stroke, and are overwhelmed by this decisive and conclusive fact. Modern critics must now perforce find the answers to their own objections. We need not be at the pains to repeat the refutation of their assumption, that, because certain words have not been required or necessitated by the subjects of the earlier Scriptures, therefore such words did not exist before, and are thus evidences of the book's being written at a later period of time. Only a mind already hostile could invent such a proposition, and only those who are ignorant of "the laws of evidence" could make use of it.

The prophecy of Jonah is literal history, and is besides a twofold type.

(1) He was a type of the death, burial, and resurrection of our Lord: see Matt. 12:40, where the "as" and the "so" are sufficient to show us that a man's being miraculously kept alive for a particular period can be no type of another's being dead and buried for the same period.

As our Lord was raised from the dead at the end of that period (see Ap. 156), so Jonah must have been, as miraculously, raised front the dead.

Jonah's prayer could have been uttered in the last few moments of life. In any case the words of the prayer were not written down till after he had been vomited up alive (Jonah 2:1-10).

(2) "As Jonah was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of Man be to this generation " (Luke 11:30). That generation were as grieved and angry at the faith and repentance of those to whom the resurrection of our Lord was proclaimed, as Jonah was at the repentance of the Ninevites.

Both these types were hidden in the history by the One Who knew the end from the beginning, and are declared to be so by Him of Whom Jehovah said, "I will put My words in His mouth ".

Seven times in John's Gospel our Lord testified to the fulfilment of that promise :—

"My doctrine (i.e. teaching) is not Mine, but His that sent Me" (7:16).

"As My Father hath taught Me, I speak these things " (8:28).

"Why do ye not believe Me? He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God" (8:46, 47).

"I have not spoken of (or from) Myself; but the Father which sent Me, He gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak " (12:49).

"The words that I speak unto you I speak not of (i.e. from) Myself: but the Father that dwelleth in Me" (14:10). "The word which ye hear is not Mine, but the Father's Which sent Me" (14. 24).

"I have given unto them the words which Thou [the Father] gavest Me" (17:8).

The Century Bible (Jonah; Introduction, p. 200) may say: It is humiliating for a commentator to collect doubtful stories of sailors swallowed by sharks and vomited out alive." There is truth in this. But if we recognize the fact that the word "alive", includes the thought of resurrection, then we have ample evidence that this is conveyed and taught by the "as" and "so" in Matt. 12:40. In any case we have to remember the words of Jehovah in Deut. 18:18, 19: "I will put My words in His mouth, and He shall speak unto them all that I shall command Him. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken to My words which He shall speak in My name, I will require it of him." We leave the question with these solemn words: "I will require it of him."

The notes will show us Jonah, not as a wayward, thoughtless child, but as a "man of God", willing to sacrifice himself (mistakenly, of course) in order to save his nation. He knew that Assyria at that time was in great difficulties. There is a silence of eighteen years in Assyrian history at that time, and the surrounding nations were beginning to assert themselves. Jonah had just been commissioned to encourage Israel to a restored position (2 Kings 14: 25, 26). He must have known also that Nineveh (Assyria) was to be Jehovah's rod of judgment for Israel. He knew the well-known character of Jehovah, and feared that if he made Jehovah's proclamation Nineveh might repent, and her overthrow be averted. See Jehovah's words (4:2).

If, however, for the sake of his nation, he did not make the proclamation at all, Nineveh might be overthrown and Israel saved. He was mistaken, and had to be corrected (ch. 4:4-11).

The great lesson of the book is— not "Jehovah's care for children and cattle", &c., but that the devices of man shall not frustrate His purpose, and that what He hath said shall surely come to pass.

That is the lesson which gives to the book a dignity and importance which is worthy of it, and of its place in the Word of God.

JONAH.

- 1 Now othe word of the LORD came unto Jonah othe son of Amittai, saying,
- 2 °Arise, go to °Nineveh, that great city, and °cry against it; for °their wickedness is come up before Me.
- 3 But Jonah "rose up to flee unto "Tarshish "from the presence of the LORD, and went down to "Joppa; and he found a large merchant ship going to "Tarshish: so he paid the fare [and counted the cost of his flight] thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish "from the presence of the LORD.
- 4 But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship thought to be broken.
- 5 Then the mariners [salts] were afraid, and cried [in prayer] every man unto his god, and cast forth the tackling that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone below deck of the covered part; and he lay, and was fast asleep.
 6 So the captain came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy ©God [the true

God], if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

1. 1 the word of the LORD came. This statement is unanswerable, and covers the truth of the whole contents of this book. This, or a like expression occurs seven times in Jonah (1.1; 2.10; 3.1, 3; 4.4, 9, 10). the LORD. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4. II. Jonah is the prophet named and described in 2 Kings

Jonah is the prophet named and described in 2 Kings 14.25. He was a native of Gath-hepher, now el Meshhed, three miles north-east of Nazareth. Nazareth was in Galilee (see Ap. 169). The statement of the Pharisees in John 7. 52 was not true.

the son of Amittai. See 2 Kings 14. 25. Amittai = the truth of Jehovah.

2 Arise, go. Contrast "rose up to flee" (v. 3).

Nineveh. Cp. Gen. 1C. 11, 12. Mentioned again in 3. 2, 3; 4. 11. The capital of Assyria, on the left bank of the Tigris. Called first Nina, from the patron goddess of the city; of Babylonian origin; founded by a colony from Nina in South Babylonia (see Records of the Past, vol. iv, part ii, p. 61). Khammurabi, 1915 B. C. (on Companion Bible dating), code iv, pp. 60-62, spells it Ni-nu-a. Excavations reveal "the mound of Nebi-Yunus crowned by the tomb of Jonah, which could not then be explored" (see Art. "Nineveh" in the Encycl. Brit., 11th (Cambridge) edition, 1911).

cry against it. Not whisper or speak softly, but cry, as making a general proclamation. Heb. kara'. Cp. Judg. 7. 3, 20. Isa. 58. 1. Joel 3. 9. Amos 4. 5, &c. Cp. also vv. 2, 6; 3. 2.

their wickedness. Nineveh was noted for violence and cruelty of all kinds, recorded in its own bas-reliefs, &c. (see Nah. 2. 8-13). Ref. to Pent. (Gen. 18. 20, 21), wickedness. Heb. pl. of rā'a'. Ap. 44. viii.

3 rose up to flee. Jonah knew that Assyria was to be God's sword of judgment against Israel. If Nineveh perished, Israel might be saved. God's mercy might arrest this overthrow of Nineveh. Was this why Jonah would sacrifice himself to save his nation? This would explain his flight here, and his displeasure, as clearly stated in 4. 1-3. When he said (v. 12), "Take me up", &c., he had counted the cost. He confesses to the men (vv. 9, 10), but not to God. He gave his life to save his People. The type of Christ may have begun here. See Gal. 3. 13; and cp. Rom. 9. 1-3. Tarshish. See note on 1 Kings 10. 22. from the presence of the Lord. Ref. to Pent. (Gen. 4. 16). Ap. 92. Joppa. Now Jaffa. Cp. Josh. 19. 46. 2 Chron. 2. 16. Acts 9. 36. ship. Heb. 'aniyāh = any large merchant ship. Not the same word as in v. -5. he paid the fare: and counted the cost of his flight. See notes on the Structure, p. 1247.

- 7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this calamity is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.
- 8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for what cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?
- 9 And [⊙]he said unto them, I am an [⊙]Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, othe God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.
- 10 Then were the ^omen *exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, •Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.
- 11 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea grew more and more tempestuous.
- 12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.
- 13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it [back] to the land; but they could not: for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them.
- 14 Wherefore they cried [in prayer] unto the LORD, and said, We beseech Thee, O LORD, we beseech Thee, let us not perish for this man's soul, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for Thou, O LORD, hast done according as it pleased Thee.
- 15 So they took up with reverence Jonah, and [⊙]cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ^oceased from her raging.
- 16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and they vowed that they would offer when they landed a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.
- 17 Now the LORD had appointed a [⊙]great fish [large] enough] to ^oswallow up Jonah. And Jonah came to be in the bowels of the fish othere days and three nights.
- 2 And Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's bowels.
- 2 And said, I cried out by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and He answered me; out of the belly of ^ohell cried I for help in distress, and Thou gavest heed to my voice.

- -4 forty. The number of probation. See Ap. 10. proclaimed a fast. Professor Rawlings has shown just at this time Nineveh was in a time of trouble, and Assyrian history was "shrouded in darkness for forty years". Hope was given to all the neighbouring countries which were asserting their independence. This explains the readiness of Nineveh to hearken and obey, as was done on another occasion when the prophet of Nineveh declared it needful. This decline of Nineveh gave hope to Israel: which hope had been encouraged by the prophet Jonah himself (2 Kings 14:25-27). This may have been the reason for Jonah's not wishing to avert the overthrow (v. 4) of Nineveh, by giving it the opportunity to repent and thus secure Jehovah's favour (Joel 2:14). We thus have veritable history, and not allegory.

- 7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his great ones, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:
- 8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his wicked way, and from the violence that is in their hands.
- 9 Who can tell but that God will turn and repent, and turn away from His fierce anger, that we perish not?
- 10 And God saw their works, that they turned from their wicked way; and God *repented concerning the wickedness, that He had said that He would do unto them; and He did it not.
- But it vexed Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.
- 2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray Thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I hasted to flee before unto Tarshish: for °I knew that Thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest Thee of the [⊙]evil.
- 3 Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech Thee, my olife from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.
- 4 Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry?
- 5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city. and there made for himself a hut, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would happen to the city.
- 6 And the LORD God appointed a [⊙]gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a *shadow over his head, *to deliver him from his evil case. So Jonah was *exceeding glad of the gourd.
- 7 But God appointed a *worm [blight] when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.
- 8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God appointed a sultry hot wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished oin himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.
- 9 And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well [it is right] to be angry, even unto death.
- 10 Then said the LORD, Thou wouldst have spared the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which was the son of a night, and perished as the son of a night:
- 11 And *should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein exist more than sixscore thousand [120,000] persons *that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also omuch cattle?

1 displeased = vexed. Not the waywardness of a child, but the displeasure of a man of God, for great and sufficient reason to him. Now that Nineveh was spared, it might after all be used as God's rod for Israel, and thus destroy the hope held out by him to Israel in 2 Kings 14. 25-27. See note on 3. 5 and p. 1247.

2 the LORD. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4. II. Therefore I fled = hasted to flee. The reason follows, as explained in note on v. 1.

I knew. This was well known, from Jehovah's revelation of Himself. Jonah knew, and referred to the Pent. (Ex. 34. 6. Num. 14. 18, 19). David knew (Ps. 86. 5). Hosea knew (Hos. 11. 8, 9). Joel knew (Joel 2. 13). Micah knew (Mic. 7. 18). Jonah's knowledge explains his flight (1.3). No one could tell us this but himself.

GOD. Heb. El. Ap. 4. IV. evil. Heb. $r\bar{\alpha}'a$. Ap. 44. viii.

3 life = soul. Heb. nephesh. Ap. 13.

5 made him = made for himself.

become of = happen to. Hoping for its overthrow. 6 God. Heb. Elohim (as Creator). Ap. 4. I.

prepared = appointed: as in vv. 7, 8; 1.17.

gourd. Heb. kīkāyōn. An Egyptian word. shadow... to deliver him. Note the Fig. Paronomasia (Ap. 6). Heb. tzēl... lchatztzēl. grief=evil, or evil case. Heb. rā'a'. Ap. 44. viii. was exceeding glad. Note the Fig. Polyptōton (Ap. 6), for emphasis. Heb. = rejoiced with great rejoicing.

7 worm. Put by Fig. Synecdoche (of the Part), Ap.6, for a blight of such; as in Deut. 28:39. They were appointed during the night, and came at sunrise. 8 vehement=silent, still. Hence, sultry. Occurs only here. Not a "late" word, but not required to be used before this. east wind=hot wind. wind. Heb. ruach. Ap. 9. in himself=in his soul. Heb. Nephesh. Ap. 13. 9 I do well. Supply "I do well [it is right]". 10 hast had pity on: or, wouldst have spared: same word as in v. 11.

came up in a night=was the son of a night. perished in a night=perished as the son of a night. 11 should not I...? Fig. Erotesis (Ap. 6), no answer being required. are=exits. Heb. yesh. See note on Prov. 8:21. that cannot discern, &c. Put by Heb. Idiom (Ap.6), for little children; a similar idiom in Deut. 1:39 Ap. 92. much cattle. See notes on "great city", 3:2; and "herd and flock", 3:7. Nineveh's walls included large areas for pasturage and cultivation. In speaking of the innocent ones in the city these are naturally included. Thus the book suddenly ends; and we are left with the solemn reflection that, Nineveh being spared, the way was thus open for the execution of Jehovah's judgment on Israel by the sword of Assyria, which took place in due time.
